Air Service Agreement With US

4. SHRI ANAND SHARMA: Will the Minister of CIVIL AVIATION be pleased to state:

(a) whether India and US have reached an Air Service agreement for increasing the bilateral air traffic between the two countries;

(b) if so, the details thereof and the list of destinations made available to the Indian carriers; and

(c) the policy for the utilization of new routes and the allocation of slots among national and private carriers?

THE MINISTER OF STATE OF THE MINISTRY OF CIVIL AVIATION (SHRI PRAFUL PATEL): (a) and (b) India and USA have initiated a revised Air Services Agreement in January, 2005. As per this Agreement, both countries can designate any number of airlines, which in turn can operate any number of services from any point in the home country to any point in the territory of the other contracting party with full intermediate/beyond traffic rights. This Agreement thus gives access to the designated Indian carriers to any point in the USA.

(c) Detailed guidelines have been notified by Director General of Civil Aviation in this regard. These, inter-alia, envisage that operational plans of Air India and Indian Airlines be taken into consideration before allocation of routes among other scheduled operators. Allocation of traffic rights amongst eligible scheduled carriers would depend on the availability of traffic rights to particular countries/routes. If the total entitlements fall short of the requirements projected by the eligible airlines, inter-se allocation of
